

TERMS OF THE TIMES.

Published Every Day in the Year.

REVENUE BY CARRIERS:
 DAILY AND SUNDAY, PER COPY.....$ .28
 DAILY AND SUNDAY, PER MONTH.....$ 8.50
 DAILY AND SUNDAY, PER QUARTER.....$ 25.00
 DAILY AND SUNDAY, PER YEAR.....$ 280.00
 WEEKLY, PER YEAR.....$ 1.50

THE TIMES OWNS THE EXCLUSIVE RIGHT FOR A MONTHLY REPUBLICAN PAPER TO PUBLISH IN LOS ANGELES THE TELEGRAPH "WIRE REPORTS" OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS, (REPRINTING THE NEW YORK ASSOCIATED PRESS AND THE WESTERN ASSOCIATED PRESS), THE LARGEST NEWS-GATHERING ORGANIZATION IN THE WORLD. ITS REMUNERATION EXTENDS THROUGHOUT THE CIVILIZED GLOBE, INCLUDING CABLE CONNECTIONS AND CONNECTIONS WITH THE DE REUTER, HAVAS AND WOLFF NEWS AGENCIES OF EUROPE. OUR NEWS FRANCHISE IS FOR A LONG TERM OF YEARS.

CORRESPONDENCE solicited from all quarters. Timely local topics and news items of general interest, including the latest in the city and county, and the state and nation, are especially desired. The editor will be glad to receive them, and will pay for them at the rate of $100 per year for the exclusive right to use them.

SUBSCRIBERS, when writing to have the address of their paper changed, should also state the former address.

THE TIMES-MIRROR TELEPHONES:
 Business Office, Main and Broadway, No. 29
 Editorial Office, Main and Broadway, No. 29
 Times-Mirror Printing House, No. 453

Address: The Times-Mirror Company, N.E. cor. First and Fort sts., Los Angeles, Cal.
 Entered at Postoffice as Second-Class Matter.

The Times

BY THE TIMES-MIRROR COMPANY.
 H. G. OTIS,
 President and General Manager.
 C. G. ALLEN, Vice President and Business Manager.
 W. A. SPALDING, Secretary.

Vol. XV.....No. 176

THE TIMES can be found on sale at the following places:

San Francisco—Occidental Hotel Newsstand.
 Seattle, W. T.—International News Depot.
 Denver, Colo.—The Denver Post.
 Kansas City—B. G. Glick, No. 21 East Fifth street.
 Phoenix, Ariz.—Cotton Bros.

The banking business occupied a good deal of the Council's time yesterday. The city's funds are evidently in bad demand.

There is great suffering among the idle laborers at Panama. Many are without food and shelter, and the tropical wet season is on.

The Star, which was started at San Luis Rey, and moved thence to Ocean-side, is now published at El Cajon. This is evidently not a fixed star.

A WASHINGTON dispatch says that Elliot F. Shepard is to be urged for the Russian mission. This is certainly a great year for newspaper men.

A LONDON Journalist has secured a summons against the Duke of Cambridge, Commander-in-Chief of Her Britannic Majesty's forces, and also against the Inspector of Police, for assault. Her's a pretty how'd'ye do!

The capture of a man-eating shark, fifty feet out in the bay of San Diego, in shallow water, is ample proof of the wealth of that city's piscatorial resources. The San Diegans didn't can this fish, but await a good offer from a museum.

An oil well near Washington, Pa., has increased from 200 barrels a day to 75 barrels an hour, and is believed to be good for 2500 barrels a day on deeper drilling. There is considerable excitement in the neighborhood. We ought to have a few wells like that near Los Angeles.

The Mayor's message to the Council on the subject of the sewer system contains much sound sense. Whatever deliberations are undertaken, had better be had before work is commenced than after, and if we can get Pasadena to join with us in building the sewer it will be so much the better.

OUR Southern California contemporaries are very justly criticizing the effrontery of a San Francisco real-estate firm, which issued a circular under the guise of a "California Guide for Tourists and Settlers," and asked papers in this section to puff it, when it utterly ignores everything "south of Kern." The gall of the Northern Citrus Belter is wonderful.

It is not at all wonderful that a fakir should be professing to work miracles in this city, because now-a-days everything, from worshipping God to seducing innocence, is conducted on a financial basis, but it is remarkable that in this so-called enlightened age a large number of apparently well-educated people can be found to run after an impostor of this description.

SHOULD the charge be true that the Clan-na-Gael is a society which secretly tries men believed to be traitors; orders them to be "removed," and hires assassins to carry out its decrees, then it is high time that the Clan-na-Gael itself was removed. We have no use in this country for such organized bands of midnight assassins, whether their ostensible objects are patriotism, or simply lucre.

ALL the private teachers in New York city are up in arms about the provisions of the new Compulsory Education Bill, and are going in numerous delegations to Gov. Hill to influence as best they can his action against it. Schools of high grade for the preparation of young men for college would, by the new bill, be placed under the direction of the public schools, a provision which is considered very unpleasant by the professional tutors.

An ordinance to provide for the widening of First street, from Los Angeles street to the river, was read in the Council yesterday and referred to the Board of Public Works. All hope of finishing the paving of the street by next rainy season had better now be abandoned, but an effort ought to be made to have it fixed by the winter of 1930-31. Unfortunately, the property-owners on the street don't appear to have an effort in them—or, if they have, they don't let it out.

OBSERVATIONS ON "GERNALISM."

The Los Angeles Tribune, conducted by a notorious person "of the name of" Boyce, and which under his able management has just emerged from the hands of the Sheriff, through the friendly though secret intervention of some confiding persons with more brains than sense, contains an "able editorial" on the topic, "How a Newspaper is Not Made."

Mr. Boyce seems to know a good deal more about this subject than he does about its affirmative side. "How a Newspaper is Made." Upon that practical subject he has shown himself to be densely ignorant. He, however, writes with much assumed plausibility and more gall. In fact he writes so plausibly as to make a greenhorn take him for a saint—wherein the greenhorn would be taken in and "done up" in true Broad-Acres style.

This pinchback saint attempts quite a lofty strain in discussing the qualities which, in his sublimated mind, a "great journal" should possess, and also the traits requisite in the person who would successfully conduct such a newspaper, which, in this case of course means the Tribune.

But Mr. Boyce does not touch the quick in handling his favorite subject. He fails to reach down to the proper depth, and entirely misses the "true inwardness" of the situation. He makes a weak effort to show what sort of qualities a "great journalist" (Mr. Boyce, for instance), should not have; but, strangely enough, his summary stops far short of the "real thing," though he had plenty of facts at command to draw from. So stand aside, novice and pretender, as you have made such a dismal failure of it, and let a veteran give you points.

We shall endeavor to describe a few of the qualifications, personal and otherwise, that a journalist worthy of the name should not possess, if he desires to have any influence or any success.

For instance, he who would be an able editor should not have been a wife-beater nor a wife and child deserter; he should not be a person who has been a notorious consort with harlots; nor one who brutally introduced harlots into his own home and to the presence of his lawful wife; nor one who practically forced the wife into servitude for such harlots; nor should he be one who has been judicially declared "an unfit person to have the care and custody of said child."

A man who seeks to be a public educator, and poses before the public as a moral exemplar and a smooth citizen generally, should not be one who was a thief of soldiers' money.

He should not be one who has been entrusted to his care to instruct the families of such soldiers while they were serving in the field—an act of matchless and amazing perfidy sufficient to render its perpetrator forever infamous.

The truly good and highly virtuous journalist, who would achieve "fame" and the largest circulation, should not be one who has been engaged in the money game of his employers while engaged in the saintly occupation of a book agent, even if the plundered moneys did constitute a corruption fund for the "persuasion" of school boards and State Legislatures.

A great journalistic statesman who would swing the Archimedean lever to any purpose socially should not be a culprit with an infamous marital record, who is dishonored among and spurned by an ancient and honorable fraternity for acts of unparalleled brutality, cruelty and cowardice in the domestic circle, and for wrongs done the offspring of a former brother Mason.

A man who by dishonest methods more than once "got away" with the money of his associates in business, was compelled to disgorge under threat of the dungeon—is that the sort of person to hypocritically indite and publish homilies about producing things "pleasant and helpful to his fellow men?"

The man who can achieve standing in the community, whether in or out of journalism, is not that man who wrecked himself and others in a land deal by the most rotten and shameless "wildcat" methods; who "did up" a confiding partner in another land deal by the most ingenious and devilish trickery, and when accused of theft by his victim, sued for breach of character, claiming damages in a sum approximating half a hundred thousand dollars, and after a long, patient and impartial trial, was awarded by a jury of his countrymen a sum less than the price of a very common car.

Nor is one who was sternly denied admission to the Loyal Legion—a body of honorable soldiers and gentlemen—denied admission because of his known black and crooked record—just the person to figure extensively in social, military or political circles, or teach a Sunday-school. Do you think so, smiling and smirking hypocrite of the Trombone?

For a person who would figure as a man of affairs, and "shape public policies," you would hardly select one who, to avert rejection by the Senate of California, was compelled to beg the Governor to withdraw his name from that body after it had been before it for weeks for confirmation to an office in the militia—now, would you, Mr. Boyce?

A slippery fakir who was boldly accused by one of his late victimized associates of sharp practices with the cash-drawer of his declining "organ," which by his superior "management" he subsequently steered straight into the hands of the Sheriff, and brought to the very verge of an ignominious death, who is always and everywhere a hypocrite, pretender, thief and scoundrel; who scoffs at the idea of honor in men and virtue in women; who neither has the courage nor the sense to fight honestly and manfully in any good cause without the base inspiration furnished by booze; and who is altogether the most unmitigated scamp that community was ever cursed with—would you pick out that sort of a moral leper for the "able editor" of a high moral family journal and a leader of opinion in an enlightened community of honest men? Not unless the brain were turned, the heart corrupted and the conscience seared!

If the callow tinker with Tribune types again essays, during the remainder of his shortening career in the midst of which he accidentally occupies an "able editorial" on his favorite topic, "gernalism" (with a g.) let him come to the undaunted, perpendicular and clear-headed TIMES for "pointers," and we'll once more fill him full of ideas and things, showing "How a Great Newspaper is Not Made," and in doing so we promise to draw the lessons exclusively from the antics of the fakir himself and the columns of his faking sheet.

A LESSON IN TREE-PLANTING.

Los Angeles can learn much from the capital of the Nation, in the way of beautifying a city. The natural location of Washington was not particularly attractive, but the tasteful and judicious expenditure of money has made it one of the most beautiful cities in the world.

One of the first things the stranger in Washington notices is the trees, and about the first thing the Washingtonian notices, when he visits other cities, is the absence of them. Probably no other city in the world is so abundantly supplied with trees, and they do much to make it so beautiful. The total number of trees planted along the streets and avenues of Washington now amounts to 70,000, made up of about sixty varieties, coming from almost every part of the globe. Tree-planting in Washington was only commenced in 1872, on an extensive scale. It is under charge of a "parking commission," the members of which are students and admirers of Nature, and go to great pains to carry out their work. It is only under such men that so much success could have been attained, for the planting and caring for trees requires much skill and patience. Most of the Washington trees are of course deciduous, although there are some evergreens. Over 30,000 of the trees are maples. The linden is also popular. It is generally believed that malaria is much less prevalent in Washington than it was before so many trees were planted. Altogether there are 240 miles of shaded streets, or 120 miles of shaded streets, and the cost to the Government of the attention they require for the past ten years averaged $20,000 per annum, which to us seems a very moderate figure.

Now cannot we learn a lesson from Washington in this matter? Here we have a climate which will permit the growth of a hundred beautiful semi-tropical trees, for which the winters of Washington are too severe. We could produce some wonderfully beautiful effects by a judicious selection of such trees. It is true that there are quite a number of shade trees planted on our streets, but not nearly so many as in Washington.

It is a great mistake to suppose that the money of our employers will be engaged in the saintly occupation of a book agent, even if the plundered moneys did constitute a corruption fund for the "persuasion" of school boards and State Legislatures.

A great journalistic statesman who would swing the Archimedean lever to any purpose socially should not be a culprit with an infamous marital record, who is dishonored among and spurned by an ancient and honorable fraternity for acts of unparalleled brutality, cruelty and cowardice in the domestic circle, and for wrongs done the offspring of a former brother Mason.

A man who by dishonest methods more than once "got away" with the money of his associates in business, was compelled to disgorge under threat of the dungeon—is that the sort of person to hypocritically indite and publish homilies about producing things "pleasant and helpful to his fellow men?"

The man who can achieve standing in the community, whether in or out of journalism, is not that man who wrecked himself and others in a land deal by the most rotten and shameless "wildcat" methods; who "did up" a confiding partner in another land deal by the most ingenious and devilish trickery, and when accused of theft by his victim, sued for breach of character, claiming damages in a sum approximating half a hundred thousand dollars, and after a long, patient and impartial trial, was awarded by a jury of his countrymen a sum less than the price of a very common car.

Nor is one who was sternly denied admission to the Loyal Legion—a body of honorable soldiers and gentlemen—denied admission because of his known black and crooked record—just the person to figure extensively in social, military or political circles, or teach a Sunday-school. Do you think so, smiling and smirking hypocrite of the Trombone?

For a person who would figure as a man of affairs, and "shape public policies," you would hardly select one who, to avert rejection by the Senate of California, was compelled to beg the Governor to withdraw his name from that body after it had been before it for weeks for confirmation to an office in the militia—now, would you, Mr. Boyce?

A slippery fakir who was boldly accused by one of his late victimized associates of sharp practices with the cash-drawer of his declining "organ," which by his superior "management" he subsequently steered straight into the hands of the Sheriff, and brought to the very verge of an ignominious death, who is always and everywhere a hypocrite, pretender, thief and scoundrel; who scoffs at the idea of honor in men and virtue in women; who neither has the courage nor the sense to fight honestly and manfully in any good cause without the base inspiration furnished by booze; and who is altogether the most unmitigated scamp that community was ever cursed with—would you pick out that sort of a moral leper for the "able editor" of a high moral family journal and a leader of opinion in an enlightened community of honest men? Not unless the brain were turned, the heart corrupted and the conscience seared!

If the callow tinker with Tribune types again essays, during the remainder of his shortening career in the midst of which he accidentally occupies an "able editorial" on his favorite topic, "gernalism" (with a g.) let him come to the undaunted, perpendicular and clear-headed TIMES for "pointers," and we'll once more fill him full of ideas and things, showing "How a Great Newspaper is Not Made," and in doing so we promise to draw the lessons exclusively from the antics of the fakir himself and the columns of his faking sheet.

A LESSON IN TREE-PLANTING.

Los Angeles can learn much from the capital of the Nation, in the way of beautifying a city. The natural location of Washington was not particularly attractive, but the tasteful and judicious expenditure of money has made it one of the most beautiful cities in the world.

One of the first things the stranger in Washington notices is the trees, and about the first thing the Washingtonian notices, when he visits other cities, is the absence of them. Probably no other city in the world is so abundantly supplied with trees, and they do much to make it so beautiful. The total number of trees planted along the streets and avenues of Washington now amounts to 70,000, made up of about sixty varieties, coming from almost every part of the globe. Tree-planting in Washington was only commenced in 1872, on an extensive scale. It is under charge of a "parking commission," the members of which are students and admirers of Nature, and go to great pains to carry out their work. It is only under such men that so much success could have been attained, for the planting and caring for trees requires much skill and patience. Most of the Washington trees are of course deciduous, although there are some evergreens. Over 30,000 of the trees are maples. The linden is also popular. It is generally believed that malaria is much less prevalent in Washington than it was before so many trees were planted. Altogether there are 240 miles of shaded streets, or 120 miles of shaded streets, and the cost to the Government of the attention they require for the past ten years averaged $20,000 per annum, which to us seems a very moderate figure.

Now cannot we learn a lesson from Washington in this matter? Here we have a climate which will permit the growth of a hundred beautiful semi-tropical trees, for which the winters of Washington are too severe. We could produce some wonderfully beautiful effects by a judicious selection of such trees. It is true that there are quite a number of shade trees planted on our streets, but not nearly so many as in Washington.

It is a great mistake to suppose that the money of our employers will be engaged in the saintly occupation of a book agent, even if the plundered moneys did constitute a corruption fund for the "persuasion" of school boards and State Legislatures.

A great journalistic statesman who would swing the Archimedean lever to any purpose socially should not be a culprit with an infamous marital record, who is dishonored among and spurned by an ancient and honorable fraternity for acts of unparalleled brutality, cruelty and cowardice in the domestic circle, and for wrongs done the offspring of a former brother Mason.

A man who by dishonest methods more than once "got away" with the money of his associates in business, was compelled to disgorge under threat of the dungeon—is that the sort of person to hypocritically indite and publish homilies about producing things "pleasant and helpful to his fellow men?"

enlightened community of honest men? Not unless the brain were turned, the heart corrupted and the conscience seared!

If the callow tinker with Tribune types again essays, during the remainder of his shortening career in the midst of which he accidentally occupies an "able editorial" on his favorite topic, "gernalism" (with a g.) let him come to the undaunted, perpendicular and clear-headed TIMES for "pointers," and we'll once more fill him full of ideas and things, showing "How a Great Newspaper is Not Made," and in doing so we promise to draw the lessons exclusively from the antics of the fakir himself and the columns of his faking sheet.

A LESSON IN TREE-PLANTING.

Los Angeles can learn much from the capital of the Nation, in the way of beautifying a city. The natural location of Washington was not particularly attractive, but the tasteful and judicious expenditure of money has made it one of the most beautiful cities in the world.

One of the first things the stranger in Washington notices is the trees, and about the first thing the Washingtonian notices, when he visits other cities, is the absence of them. Probably no other city in the world is so abundantly supplied with trees, and they do much to make it so beautiful. The total number of trees planted along the streets and avenues of Washington now amounts to 70,000, made up of about sixty varieties, coming from almost every part of the globe. Tree-planting in Washington was only commenced in 1872, on an extensive scale. It is under charge of a "parking commission," the members of which are students and admirers of Nature, and go to great pains to carry out their work. It is only under such men that so much success could have been attained, for the planting and caring for trees requires much skill and patience. Most of the Washington trees are of course deciduous, although there are some evergreens. Over 30,000 of the trees are maples. The linden is also popular. It is generally believed that malaria is much less prevalent in Washington than it was before so many trees were planted. Altogether there are 240 miles of shaded streets, or 120 miles of shaded streets, and the cost to the Government of the attention they require for the past ten years averaged $20,000 per annum, which to us seems a very moderate figure.

Now cannot we learn a lesson from Washington in this matter? Here we have a climate which will permit the growth of a hundred beautiful semi-tropical trees, for which the winters of Washington are too severe. We could produce some wonderfully beautiful effects by a judicious selection of such trees. It is true that there are quite a number of shade trees planted on our streets, but not nearly so many as in Washington.

It is a great mistake to suppose that the money of our employers will be engaged in the saintly occupation of a book agent, even if the plundered moneys did constitute a corruption fund for the "persuasion" of school boards and State Legislatures.

A great journalistic statesman who would swing the Archimedean lever to any purpose socially should not be a culprit with an infamous marital record, who is dishonored among and spurned by an ancient and honorable fraternity for acts of unparalleled brutality, cruelty and cowardice in the domestic circle, and for wrongs done the offspring of a former brother Mason.

A man who by dishonest methods more than once "got away" with the money of his associates in business, was compelled to disgorge under threat of the dungeon—is that the sort of person to hypocritically indite and publish homilies about producing things "pleasant and helpful to his fellow men?"

The man who can achieve standing in the community, whether in or out of journalism, is not that man who wrecked himself and others in a land deal by the most rotten and shameless "wildcat" methods; who "did up" a confiding partner in another land deal by the most ingenious and devilish trickery, and when accused of theft by his victim, sued for breach of character, claiming damages in a sum approximating half a hundred thousand dollars, and after a long, patient and impartial trial, was awarded by a jury of his countrymen a sum less than the price of a very common car.

Nor is one who was sternly denied admission to the Loyal Legion—a body of honorable soldiers and gentlemen—denied admission because of his known black and crooked record—just the person to figure extensively in social, military or political circles, or teach a Sunday-school. Do you think so, smiling and smirking hypocrite of the Trombone?

For a person who would figure as a man of affairs, and "shape public policies," you would hardly select one who, to avert rejection by the Senate of California, was compelled to beg the Governor to withdraw his name from that body after it had been before it for weeks for confirmation to an office in the militia—now, would you, Mr. Boyce?

A slippery fakir who was boldly accused by one of his late victimized associates of sharp practices with the cash-drawer of his declining "organ," which by his superior "management" he subsequently steered straight into the hands of the Sheriff, and brought to the very verge of an ignominious death, who is always and everywhere a hypocrite, pretender, thief and scoundrel; who scoffs at the idea of honor in men and virtue in women; who neither has the courage nor the sense to fight honestly and manfully in any good cause without the base inspiration furnished by booze; and who is altogether the most unmitigated scamp that community was ever cursed with—would you pick out that sort of a moral leper for the "able editor" of a high moral family journal and a leader of opinion in an enlightened community of honest men? Not unless the brain were turned, the heart corrupted and the conscience seared!

If the callow tinker with Tribune types again essays, during the remainder of his shortening career in the midst of which he accidentally occupies an "able editorial" on his favorite topic, "gernalism" (with a g.) let him come to the undaunted, perpendicular and clear-headed TIMES for "pointers," and we'll once more fill him full of ideas and things, showing "How a Great Newspaper is Not Made," and in doing so we promise to draw the lessons exclusively from the antics of the fakir himself and the columns of his faking sheet.

A LESSON IN TREE-PLANTING.

Los Angeles can learn much from the capital of the Nation, in the way of beautifying a city. The natural location of Washington was not particularly attractive, but the tasteful and judicious expenditure of money has made it one of the most beautiful cities in the world.

One of the first things the stranger in Washington notices is the trees, and about the first thing the Washingtonian notices, when he visits other cities, is the absence of them. Probably no other city in the world is so abundantly supplied with trees, and they do much to make it so beautiful. The total number of trees planted along the streets and avenues of Washington now amounts to 70,000, made up of about sixty varieties, coming from almost every part of the globe. Tree-planting in Washington was only commenced in 1872, on an extensive scale. It is under charge of a "parking commission," the members of which are students and admirers of Nature, and go to great pains to carry out their work. It is only under such men that so much success could have been attained, for the planting and caring for trees requires much skill and patience. Most of the Washington trees are of course deciduous, although there are some evergreens. Over 30,000 of the trees are maples. The linden is also popular. It is generally believed that malaria is much less prevalent in Washington than it was before so many trees were planted. Altogether there are 240 miles of shaded streets, or 120 miles of shaded streets, and the cost to the Government of the attention they require for the past ten years averaged $20,000 per annum, which to us seems a very moderate figure.

Now cannot we learn a lesson from Washington in this matter? Here we have a climate which will permit the growth of a hundred beautiful semi-tropical trees, for which the winters of Washington are too severe. We could produce some wonderfully beautiful effects by a judicious selection of such trees. It is true that there are quite a number of shade trees planted on our streets, but not nearly so many as in Washington.

It is a great mistake to suppose that the money of our employers will be engaged in the saintly occupation of a book agent, even if the plundered moneys did constitute a corruption fund for the "persuasion" of school boards and State Legislatures.

A great journalistic statesman who would swing the Archimedean lever to any purpose socially should not be a culprit with an infamous marital record, who is dishonored among and spurned by an ancient and honorable fraternity for acts of unparalleled brutality, cruelty and cowardice in the domestic circle, and for wrongs done the offspring of a former brother Mason.

A man who by dishonest methods more than once "got away" with the money of his associates in business, was compelled to disgorge under threat of the dungeon—is that the sort of person to hypocritically indite and publish homilies about producing things "pleasant and helpful to his fellow men?"

THE CRONIN CASE.

Two Important Arrests at Chicago.

Detective Coughlin Formally Charged with Murder.

O'Sullivan, the Ice-man, Also Taken Into Custody.

The Officers Declare They Have Secured Important Evidence—A Clan-na-Gael Agent Aligned with the Police.

By Telegram to The Times.

CHICAGO, May 27.—[By the Associated Press.] The air today has been filled with the rumors of important developments, arrests, etc., in connection with the Cronin case, but with one or two exceptions it was next to impossible to confirm or disprove them, owing to the extreme reticence of the police authorities. Although the police today denied that P. O'Sullivan, the ice dealer whose name has been connected with the mysterious case from the first, had been arrested, it is asserted this evening that he has not been seen about his home or place of business all day. Although some of the police officers today denied that McGeehan, the man who it is asserted came here from Philadelphia to aid in the "removal" of Dr. Cronin, was arrested, it seems to be no doubt that they have him in charge, and that important evidence of some nature has been secured against him.

ANOTHER SUSPECT ARRESTED.

This afternoon Harry Jordan, a man who came from Philadelphia some time ago, and who is said to have been an intimate friend of McGeehan, was arrested on the charge of being a witness. It is asserted that he knows something of McGeehan's movements that may prove of value in the case. Jordan, who is a native of Philadelphia, was arrested on the charge of being a witness. It is asserted that he knows something of McGeehan's movements that may prove of value in the case. Jordan, who is a native of Philadelphia, was arrested on the charge of being a witness. It is asserted that he knows something of McGeehan's movements that may prove of value in the case.

It was reported on the streets last night that John B. McManus would not accept the position on the Police Commission to which he was elected yesterday afternoon by the unanimous vote of the Council. Ex-Mayor John Bryson and other prominent Democrats are strongly opposed to him accepting the position under the circumstances. They say that, while he is a representative man of his party, against whom no possible objection can be raised, and a man eminently qualified for the place, they do not care to see him go in the commission handicapped as he would be by the combination as it now exists, and to succeed a Democrat who resigned his position to resent a gratuitous insult to the Spaniards, which place was afterwards tendered to Mr. Estadillo and declined by him. Should the Council conclude to reorganize the commission, and make an entire change, they say that there would be no objection raised to Mr. McManus, but that he would receive the entire support of his party for the place. Reorganization is the need and the duty of the hour.

LATER DEVELOPMENTS.

Coughlin Charged With the Murder of O'Sullivan.

CHICAGO, May 27.—[By the Associated Press.] The police station cell where he has been detained on suspicion. An examination by a justice was held immediately within the stone walls of the dungeon. A few moments later the magistrate ordered a commitment and Coughlin was hurried out on his way to the County Jail. The warrant was sworn out by John Cronin, brother of the dead Doctor. Coughlin is charged directly with murder.

It is learned that Coughlin was today released by a severe cold in the chest. He is said to be one of the brightest officers on the force, and was one of Capt. Schaeck's best men during the time of the Anarchist trouble. The outcome of the pumping process would be a matter of interest, but the police refuse to talk. No one was allowed to see Coughlin. He has an attorney, who has been hired by his friends.

LATER.—It is now announced that Detective Coughlin was arrested on the charge of murder not because of any new evidence that had been procured, but because his attorney was attempting to get him out of the hands of the police on a writ of habeas corpus.

O'SULLIVAN ARRESTED.

At a late hour this evening the police admitted that O'Sullivan, the ice man, had been arrested, but refused to say where he is confined or whether any facts which seem to be evidence against him have been secured.

OTHER SUSPECTS.

The young man King, arrested on the strength of Woodruff's story, was released this evening, the police believing him all right.

The story to the effect that McGeehan was the man who called for and drove Cronin away on the night of the murder was exploded tonight by a positive statement from a friend of Cronin who saw the man in the buggy that McGeehan was not the man.

MRS. LOMASNEY'S STORY.

She Never Heard of the Alleged Fund for Her Family.

DETROIT, May 27.—[By the Associated Press.] In reference to Dr. Cronin's report to the Clan-na-Gael, in 1888, on misappropriation of funds intended for the family of William Mackay Lomasney, Mrs. Lomasney says: "It is a great surprise to me, and I am sorry that either myself or my unfortunate fund should be mixed up in the death of Dr. Cronin. It would seem, from the reports, that he was killed because he knew too much, and that the murder was committed by his friends. I don't believe a word of it. No Irishman lifted his hand against him, and the murder was paid for by British gold."

When asked if she knew any of the men who were charged with appropriating money raised by a society for the benefit of herself and children, she said: "I knew Sullivan in Chicago. He seemed a very nice man, but I do not know much about him. The other two mentioned are perfect strangers to me, and I never heard their names mentioned before. If any money has been raised for me by any society, I never received a cent of it; but I do not believe there was. I have received a letter, however, from a man from individuals and not from organizations."

Mrs. Lomasney reiterated her belief that her husband is not dead, but imprisoned in some English dungeon with no chance to communicate with her.

AN IMPORTANT ARREST.

O'Sullivan's Damaging Admissions—Officers on the Night Track.

NEW YORK, May 27.—[By the Associated Press.] The Herald prints this morning the following from Chicago:

"O'Sullivan, the ice-man, has confessed that he had known Coughlin for years, instead of having become acquainted with him only since the murder. He has also admitted that he was a member of the Cronin-Gael, and that he was present at Lincoln Hall, at No. 501 Lincoln avenue, on the night of March 23rd last, when Cronin and others initiated several new members, taking one of the officers' chairs. He was confronted with the testimony of Justice Mahoney to the effect that he was a Clan-na-Gael member in good standing, and he did not deny it.

"O'Sullivan is an ex-convict conductor. When O'Sullivan was in the employ of the North Side Street-car Company, he became acquainted with several men, with many detectives and policemen, and especially with those on the North Side, and his denials heretofore that he knew any Chicago detectives or policemen go for nothing. He also worked in the iron mines of Michigan, and in this way became acquainted with relatives of Coughlin, in Hancock county.</

THE FLAG COTTAGE.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT THE DEN.

"Bill" Williams Attempts to Stand on an Old Lady who Worked at the "Flag"—McCormick Calls on Dr. Bovard—All of the Testimony in a Strong Case for the Prosecution.

The character of the Flag Cottage is still under fire in Justice Austin's court. The specious attempts of McCormick, its proprietor, to glaze over the real nature of the resort have only been equalled by the brutal questions sought to be asked by W. H. Williams, his attorney. The examination of witnesses was resumed at 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning, and continued until 6:30 o'clock last evening, when all the testimony was declared in by both sides.

The general line of testimony introduced by the prosecution was that of residents near University Place and the Flag Cottage that it has been a house of ill fame during the past year, the time covered by the complaint.

The first witness was Joseph Graf, son of the old German lady, Mrs. Graf, about whom Attorney Williams asked the question whether or not she had committed incest with her son, and for which he was promptly squelched by the court. The Attorney, in the insulting manner which has gained for him such an unenviable reputation, attempted to question the son about the same matter. He sneeringly asked him if he had not occupied the same sleighing apartments with his mother. The witness told of the visits of men and women to the Flag Cottage, and the boisterous manner in which they conducted themselves. He upon one occasion saw a hack coming from the cottage, in which were two men and two women. One of the women, who was drunk, wanted to return to the resort, and yelled "murder," when her companions would not do so.

Other witnesses who testified that the Flag Cottage was a house of ill fame, were William Henderson, Sam Harvard, William Burkhardt, John Davis, N. C. Anderson, J. L. Lovett, A. King, M. Kasson and Mrs. Annie Anderson.

Old Mrs. Mary Graf was then examined. She is an excitable woman, with a poor command of English, but her demeanor was modest, and her testimony bore the impress of honesty. Upon direct examination she testified that her home adjoins the Flag Cottage. That she swore to the complaint charging the McCormicks with keeping a house of prostitution. She said that she worked for the McCormicks, doing washing before she knew the character of the place. But when she discovered it she would not go there any more. The noise from the cottage by the people who resorted there frequently awakened her at night.

Upon cross-examination, the defense having no other way to bolster itself up, sought to blacken the character of the old lady by insinuating that she drank to excess, that she had killed herself one of the girls, and told McCormick that she could entertain old men better than young girls. The contemptible methods of the defense only served to give greater weight to the testimony of Mrs. Graf. She could not protect herself from the big bully who asked the questions, except by denials of the insinuations, but her answers were given in a convincing manner, although she was so wrought up that she could hardly speak.

At the afternoon session of court Dr. Sinsbaugh, President M. M. Bovard of the University, Mr. Donnelly, Mr. Howland, and Rev. Dr. T. C. Warner all testified that the general reputation of the cottage is that it is a house of ill fame, and that people resort to it for purposes of prostitution. One after another the witnesses piled up a mass of testimony showing the character of the house.

The general nature of the defense was an attempt to show that the Flag Cottage was a restaurant and wayside resort, and that the prosecution was simply inspired by envy of cranks and hypocrites, who objected to it because liquor was sold there.

Charles McCormick himself took the stand, and gave his testimony with a braggadochio air. He said that he was the proprietor of the Flag Cottage, and has been running it for two years. He said that it is simply a first-class restaurant, with wines and liquors on the table. He gave a statement of the amount of liquor on hand, including some fine old imported port, gin, sherry, whisky and champagne.

He said that his wife, himself and servants lived in the house, and his little daughter when she was not at school. That his daughter has not been at home much, except when she was sick, and when she did come home he never allowed her to go in the parlors. He denied that there have ever been prostitutes living in his house, and no one had slept in it except over night. When times were dull he had fitted up two rooms for transient guests. There were only two bedrooms besides those he uses himself. There were only five rooms in the house all told.

"Sometimes parties of gentlemen would come out," he said, "and sometimes parties of ladies. They would get meals and liquors and after being there a few hours would go away. At first a great many people came out expecting to get in. I admit that there was a great deal of noise, but there has not been recently. I have turned away more than I have let in. I claim to keep a first-class house. I have never had a cross word in it. It is a wayside house like all large cities have; a place where lunch and wines can be obtained. Old Mrs. Graf worked for me. She asked me for work and was poor and I helped her along. She drank pretty freely. She said she used to be one of the girls and could beat the young ones making money. It has been a conundrum to me who instigated all these prosecutions. I have rustled around a good deal to try to find out. Since the other trial Mr. Sexton said to me one day: 'Mac, I told you you'd better give it up.' I told him I was pretty near as old as he was and could manage my business my own way. He asked me what I would take for my lease. I told him $1000. He said if I said $250 the church might hear to it. He asked me to call on Dr. Bovard, and insisted that I did so to see him and had a very pleasant call. He told me I did not look like a man who would keep an assignation house. I told him I did not. I had a very pleasant call. He is a good clever man, but a good many preachers."

On cross-examination McCormick was riddled by Mr. Hardesty. Upon being shown a card of the Flag Cottage, which announced that it had rooms, he said that the card was wrong, but admitted that he circulated them.

"I did not ever have more than four people in my house over night at any one time," he continued. "I did not see a woman riding astride of a horse near the cottage. It is not a fact that my daughter came home every Saturday night and remained over Sunday. The drinking was usually done in the parlors. First-class people came to my place."

"Do you consider Cora Phillips a first-class person?"

"She pays first-class prices. Yes, she is first-class. First-class people came with her. She is a married woman, I understand."

"Is she a specimen of the first-class people who came to the Flag Cottage?"

"I ain't running a house for Cora Phillips. There's no specimen about it. I tell you the best gentlemen and ladies in the United States have been there. There are men worth millions and millions. My idea of first-class people are those who can act like ladies and gentlemen and pay first-class prices. I don't know anything that has caused people to talk about me except those terribly opposed to liquor. The last two or three times Cora Phillips was out there was only one or two ladies with her. I don't know their names. The conversation I had with Mrs. Graf was in a joking way."

"And you say that an old lady at her time of life made that sort of statement to you, a respectable gentleman, running a respectable business?"

"Well, it was about the actions of the people in the house at the time, and their high kicking."

Several witnesses were introduced to prove that the house was a house of prostitution. But without an exception, upon being pinned down, their knowledge was very slight, and consisted in statements that they had never seen anything of the kind when they were at the Flag Cottage. Among these witnesses were John Kilroy, Charles Turner, James J. Frowein, A. A. Colburn, W. W. Sloum, Mrs. Stewart. There was a little testimony in rebuttal.

The arguments in the case will take place this morning at 9:30 o'clock.

BRECHAM'S PILLS act like magic on a weak stomach.

The Pleasanton. A first-class hotel, building-house. Delightful rooms, en suite or single. Corner of Temple street and Grand avenue.

THE BEST REGULATOR of the digestive organs, also best appetizer known, is Anger's Bitters. The genuine Dr. J. G. B. Siegel & Sons.

A SNAP BARGAIN. Corner lot, 120 feet on First and St. Louis streets, Doris Heights. Call at 610 East First street.

BATHING AND FISHING at Catalina. Don't forget the excursion May 30th.

PEARS'S is the purest and best soap ever made.

Parties Who Are About to Build will do well to call for figures on their lumber at either of our offices before purchasing.

SCHALLERT-GANAH LUMBER COMPANY, First and Alameda streets.

Don't Buy Any Lumber Until you have had an estimate on your bill from the Schallert-Ganah Lumber Company First and Alameda streets.

Theo. Rapp, Wood Engraver, No. 10 Court street, room 3. Satisfaction guaranteed. Reasonable prices.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

WOOD and COAL.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL Wood, Coal, Coke.

The above to be always had at the lowest prices at Southern California Coal & Wood Co., Yard, cor. Jackson and Alameda streets. Telephone 313.

Carload Lots a Specialty.

We are now discharging a cargo of genuine Seattle Coal, which is the best in the market.

CLARK & HUMPHREYS, Lumber Dealers.

San Pedro st., near Seventh.

Are selling lumber at the following prices, owing to the removal of the San Pedro & Coast Railroad:

Rough Oregon Pine, $20 M.

Rough Redwood, $20 M.

No. 1 Humboldt Shingles, $2.25 M.

Surface lumber at accordingly low prices.

P.O. Box 1235. Telephone 178.

NEW HOUSE.

Wagon Material, Hard Woods, Iron, Steel, Horseshoes and Nails, Blacksmith's Coal and Tools, Cabinet Woods, Etc., Etc.

John Wigmore & Co., 18 and 15 S. Los Angeles St.

California Warehouse, COR. SEVENTH AND ALAMEDA.

GRAIN, WOOL AND GENERAL MERCHANDISE WAREHOUSE.

Storage, Commission and Insurance.

J. A. HENDERSON, President. Notice is hereby given that the stock of the last will and testament of the said deceased, be admitted to probate, that letters testamentary be issued thereon to him, at which time and place all persons interested therein may appear and contest the same.

Dated Los Angeles, May 18, 1889.

C. H. DUNSMOOR, County Clerk. By M. J. ASHMORE, Deputy.

HODGKINSON, SILENT & CAMPBELL, Attorneys for Petitioner.

Legal.

Notice of Foreclosure Sale. SHERIFF'S SALE NO. 8231.

Under and by virtue of an order of sale and decree of foreclosure and sale, issued out of the Superior Court of the county of Los Angeles, State of California, on the 11th day of May, A. D. 1889, in the above-entitled action, wherein Frank T. Townsend, the above-named plaintiff, obtained a judgment and decree of foreclosure and sale against Thomas Kelley and Francis Kelley, defendants, on the 11th day of May, A. D. 1889, for the sum of $1,000.00, with interest thereon, and costs, which said decree was, on the 8th day of May, A. D. 1889, recorded in judgment book No. 1 of said court, in page 10.

I am commanded to sell at that certain lot, piece or parcel of land, situate, lying and being in the county of Los Angeles, State of California, and bounded and described as follows: Being situated in the city and county of Los Angeles, State of California, and being known and described as lot one block X of the tract known as the "Flower Street" tract, the west line of Flower street with the north line of Third street, running thence northerly along the west line of said street 20 feet to a point, thence westerly at right angles 50 feet to the corner of the lot, thence easterly along Third street, thence easterly 50 feet to the place of beginning.

Public notice is hereby given that on Wednesday, the 28th day of June, A. D. 1889, at 10 o'clock a.m., that day, in front of the courthouse door of the county of Los Angeles, on Spruce street, I will, in obedience to said order of sale and decree, receive bids and sale, and the above-described property, or so much thereof as will satisfy the said judgment and decree, with interest and costs, to the highest and best bidder for cash, lawful money of the United States.

Dated this 15th day of May, 1889.

M. J. ASHMORE, Sheriff of Los Angeles County. By A. M. JOHNSON, Deputy.

CORREY & SWANWICK, Attorneys for Plaintiff. (The Times.)

Architects, Take Notice. THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS of the county of San Bernardino, State of California, do hereby give notice that on the 1st day of June, 1889, at 10 o'clock a.m., in the office of the Board of Supervisors, at San Bernardino, California, they will receive bids and specifications for a two-story fire-proof building, the cost of which is not to exceed $40,000, to be used principally for the Board's office and for the use of the Board of Supervisors.

The Board of Supervisors will be the sole judges of the merits of all plans and specifications submitted, and reserves the right to reject any and all of them.

If the total cost of the building, when the same is erected, exceeds the cost estimated by the architect, he will be held responsible for the excess of the cost estimated by him.

For full and complete particulars and instructions, apply to the County Clerk at San Bernardino, California.

W. H. GLASS, County Clerk. C. M. CARLSON, Committee of Board of Supervisors.

Notice of Publication of Time for proving Will, Etc.

IN THE SUPERIOR COURT, State of California, county of Los Angeles.

In the matter of the estate of C. B. Oliver, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that Thursday, the 6th day of June, 1889, at 10 o'clock a.m., of said day, at the court room of this court, commencing at two o'clock, corner Franklin and New High streets, in the city of Los Angeles, California, the city and county of Los Angeles, has been appointed as the time and place for hearing the application of W. G. Taylor, praying that a document now on file in this court, purporting to be the last will and testament of the said deceased, be admitted to probate, that letters of administration with the will annexed be issued to said W. G. Taylor, and that time and place all persons interested therein may appear and contest the same.

Dated May 28, 1889.

Wm. D. STEPHENS, Esq., attorney for petitioner.

Assessment Notice.

LAKE HEMET WATER COMPANY, principal place of business, Los Angeles, Cal. Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the board of directors held on the 4th day of May, 1889, an assessment of $1.75 per share was levied upon the assessable capital stock of the corporation, payable to the treasurer of the corporation, on the 24th day of May, 1889, at the National Bank of Los Angeles, on the 24th day of May, 1889. Any shareholder who fails to pay the same before the 24th day of May, 1889, will be liable for the same, together with cost of advertising and expenses of sale.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 21, 1889.

J. M. MANLEY, Secretary.

Meeting of Stockholders of the California Co-operative Colony.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the second annual meeting of the California Co-operative Colony, and Company will be held at their office, rooms 3 and 4, Newell block, Los Angeles, Cal., on Monday, the 28th day of June, 1889, at 10 o'clock a.m., for the transaction of such business as may properly come before the said stockholders.

RALPH B. ROY, President. M. H. JOHNSON, Secretary.

Lines of Travel.

LOS ANGELES AND PACIFIC RAILWAY COMPANY.

SANTA MONICA TIME SCHEDULE.

LEAVE LOS ANGELES.

WEEK DAYS. SUNDAY.

LEAVE SANTA MONICA.

WEEK DAYS. SUNDAY.

LEAVE LOS ANGELES.

WEEK DAYS. SUNDAY.

LEAVE SANTA MONICA.

WEEK DAYS. SUNDAY.

LEAVE LOS ANGELES.

WEEK DAYS. SUNDAY.

LEAVE SANTA MONICA.

WEEK DAYS. SUNDAY.

LEAVE LOS ANGELES.

WEEK DAYS. SUNDAY.

LEAVE SANTA MONICA.

WEEK DAYS. SUNDAY.

Lines of Travel.

PACIFIC COAST STEAMSHIP CO.

GOODELL, PARKER & CO. GENERAL AGENTS, SAN FRANCISCO.

NORTHERN ROUTE embraces lines for Portland, Ore., Victoria, B. C., and Puget Sound, Alaska, and coast points.

SOUTHERN ROUTE.

Time Table for May, 1889.

COMING SOUTH. GOING NORTH.

STEAMERS.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Qu'n Pacific.

Real Estate.

STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK AT LOS ANGELES, at the close of business May 15, 1889.

RESOURCES:

Loans and discounts, $1,079,548.80

United States bonds, 150,000.00

Stocks, bonds and warrants, 301,122.35

Cash on hand and in banks, 940,103.57

Real estate, 91,534.44

Premiums paid, 24,422.63

Total, $2,546,561.99

LIABILITIES:

Capital stock paid in, $500,000.00

Reserve fund, 50,000.00

Undivided profits, 188,659.70

Total, $738,659.70

STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES.

I, E. P. SPENCE, President of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 23rd day of May, A. D. 1889.

G. G. JOHNSON, Notary Public.

S. H. MOTT, JOHN D. HICKNELL, Directors.

E. P. SPENCE.

STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE LOS ANGELES NATIONAL BANK AT LOS ANGELES, Cal., MAY 15, 1889.

RESOURCES:

Loans and discounts, $1,079,548.80

Expense account, 11,143.30

Banking house and fixtures, 175,464.44

Cash assets, 940,103.57

Government bonds, 150,000.00

Due from banks and cash in safe, 91,534.44

Total, $2,446,178.51

LIABILITIES:

Capital, $500,000.00

Surplus, 50,000.00

Undivided profits, 188,659.70

Total, $738,659.70

FARMERS' AND MERCHANTS' BANK OF LOS ANGELES, Cal.

DEAR SIR, WILLIAM, Vice-President.

DEAR SIR, WILLIAM, Vice-President.

DEAR SIR, WILLIAM, Vice-President.

DEAR SIR, WILLIAM, Vice-President.

DEAR SIR, WILLIAM, Vice-President.

DEAR SIR, WILLIAM, Vice-President.

DEAR SIR, WILLIAM, Vice-President.

DEAR SIR, WILLIAM, Vice-President.

DEAR SIR, WILLIAM, Vice-President.

DEAR SIR, WILLIAM, Vice-President.

DEAR SIR, WILLIAM, Vice-President.

Real Estate.

STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK AT LOS ANGELES, at the close of business May 15, 1889.

RESOURCES:

Loans and discounts, $1,079,548.80

United States bonds, 150,000.00

Stocks, bonds and warrants, 301,122.35

Cash on hand and in banks, 940,103.57

Real estate, 91,534.44

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

James Brierwood, a native of England, was admitted to citizenship yesterday by Judge McKinley.

This afternoon the Woman's Suffrage Association will meet at 407 West Second street at 2:30 o'clock.

The paralysis in the police department continues, only three or four drunks being arrested yesterday.

The minister, paraded yesterday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock. They made a good appearance and attracted a good deal of attention.

County Clerk Dunsmore sent down the necessary equipment yesterday to Santa Ana for holding the county division election in June.

There are undelivered telegrams at the Western Union Telegraph Office for Mrs. Eliza Bensman, Mrs. Mary McMaster and G. K. Porter.

The sentences of Lee Quong and Ah Kim, convicted of playing fan-tan, were continued for a few days by Judge McKinley, yesterday, counsel on both sides consenting.

Officer Van Cleave found a valuable ring at the corner of Spring and Second streets, last evening, which the owner can have by calling at the station and proving his property.

A pleasant and well-attended meeting of the A.O.U.W. lodges was held last night at Masonic Hall, 294 South Spring street. An excellent literary and musical programme was given.

Arrangements have been made for thoroughly sprinkling the street on Wednesday night between the terminus of the car line on Vermont avenue and the entrance to Rosedale Cemetery.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to the following persons: Adolf Miller, aged 23, and Ottilia Muhlenbeck, aged 20, city; Frank Korber, aged 24, and Lena Berkanstak, aged 21, city.

Before Justice Lockwood yesterday, in the case of the People vs. Haasen, the defendant was found guilty of disturbing the peace, and will be sentenced today. He had a difficulty with W. Goldman.

Dr. J. J. Choate, who has been confined to his room for several days from an attack of malaria, was some better yesterday, but will hardly be able to get out and attend to his practice before next week.

The Iniquity Club will celebrate its first anniversary with a musical and literary entertainment at its rooms on Main street, this evening, after which there will be a hop. Col. J. J. Ayers of the Herald will deliver the opening address.

Three vagrants were brought in from Lancaster yesterday to serve ten-day sentences in the County Jail. The other arrivals were Robert Stimpson of Anaheim, for petty larceny, and John Morey from the city, for malicious mischief.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the East Los Angeles Baptist Church will give a tea at the residence of Mrs. Boyce, tomorrow evening. The Glenview road coaches will reach Downey avenue at 6:30 p.m., and will return at 10:30 p.m.

Yesterday morning C. McFarland prevented a serious runaway on First street. A big horse attached to a double-seated carriage containing two ladies came dashing down the street.

Mr. McFarland rushed out and caught the enraged animal just in time to save the ladies.

The Santa Fe people are preparing to build a grand depot on their First street property. If they do that and lay out a park it will be the finest depot in the United States. As soon as the Los Angeles and Salt Lake people build there will be three grand depots in Los Angeles.

The concert and commencement exercises of the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music will take place tomorrow evening at the Temperance Temple, corner of Fort and Temple streets, for the benefit of the W.C.T.U. The friends, patrons and public are invited to be present and aid in a good cause, as the musical and literary attractions will be unusually fine.

A complaint was filed in the United States Circuit Court yesterday by the Southern Pacific Railroad Company vs. Jesus Spranjo to recover possession of certain land in Kern county and $1000 accrued rents and profits. Drury Malone filed a similar complaint against William R. Tolles, F. A. Hyde, M. D. Hyde and J. C. Bates to recover possession of land in San Bernardino county and $500 rents and profits.

Yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock as Officer Bowler was passing the negro saloon on Los Angeles street near First, a man called him in, saying that there had been a fight in progress and a man had been killed. The officer on investigation found a colored man having a cut in his face patched up, which he said had been inflicted by a colored cook known as "Shorty." The injured man refused to make a complaint, so that no arrests were made.

Yesterday afternoon word was received at the police station that there was a big row in progress at No. 160 South Los Angeles street, but when the patrol wagon reached the place it was found to be merely a disturbance between John C. Bell, the auctioneer, and a man named Henry, about a set of harness which Henry said that he had bought from a boy for $3. There was no occasion for the officers, and they returned without making any arrests.

The proprietors of the saloon under the Hoffman House, the fixtures of which were entirely moved out early Sunday morning, yesterday called at the Times office to make a complaint, that they did not move to evade the payment of rent, as they did not owe any one, but that they left because the landlord would not reduce the rent. The suddenness of the move, and the unusual hour at which the effects were taken out, caused the neighboring places to suspect that everything was not straight, hence the story.

There was a big funeral in Chinatown yesterday, Sing Joe being laid away with the highest Celestial honors. A canvas awning had been erected in the street, under which the coffin, surrounded by a lively roster, securely stood, was placed, surrounded by a surmounting Chinese feast, and in the coffin was placed about half a bushel of rice to feed the departed spirit on its journey to the great beyond. The services lasted about half an hour, after which the procession started for the cemetery, there being about 20 hacks in line. The roster kept up a lively racket in the hearse, almost causing the horses to run away. The funeral was the largest one ever had in this city, almost every heathen of any prominence in the colony being present.

Hotel del Coronado. Many have been anxiously inquiring as to the time set for our next excursion to the "Hotel del Coronado." It leaves Saturday, June 1st, at 10 a.m. from the first street depot. The same low price and the same glorious good time for all participating. For particulars see advertisement.

HEALTH AND PLEASURE at Catalina. Go there May 28th.

EXCURSION TO CATALINA Thursday, May 28th.

MURRAY, the Tea Man, 313 South Main st.

PEOPLE'S STORE.

Daily Bulletin of the Leading Dry Goods House.

See what a jam we had yesterday. Did you ever see anything like it? Tried to close our front doors, so that people wouldn't be crushed to death, but found it impossible to even get near the front of our establishment—crowded clean out to the sidewalk, all on account of the monster 8-cent sale and the value we offered for the money.

While we were crowded so that not another single customer could enter, other establishments were empty. Today we ought to have just as large a crowd, and we have improved wonderfully on special sales, and offer you an opportunity to save more money on a single purchase than in any other time in our existence. Read each item, for it is a matter of importance to you.

LADIES' UNDERWEAR, 25c EACH. Ladies' Muslin Chemise, nicely made, each 25c. Ladies' Plain Drawers, nicely trimmed, each 25c.

Ladies' Muslin Skirts, with hem and tucks, each 25c. Ladies' Muslin Corset Covers, richly trimmed, each 25c.

Ladies' Lawn or Seersucker Aprons, each 25c. Ladies' Full-bone Corsets, each 25c. Ladies' Bathing Undersuits, silk finished, each 25c.

Children's Cotton Sun Bonnets, 25c. Children's Merino Underwear, 25c. Don't stop at this, but convince yourself of the value of our articles on sale in this department.

Ladies' Mill Dress Patterns, each $1.50. Handsome corset mill dress patterns, consisting of nine yards of embroidery and yards of material, all for $1.50; when found elsewhere $2.75 is the price.

Figured Lawn, New Patterns, a yard 5c. Pure Linen Towels, each 5c. Extra-heavy Unbleached Muslin, per yard 5c. Blue or Brown Apron-check Gingham, a yard 5c.

Turkey-red Napkins, each 5c. Novelty Linen-finish Prints, a yard 5c. Figured Mull, Extra-fine Finish, a yard 5c. Dotted-striped Organdies, worth 25c; today 15c.

Pure Linen Table Damask, per yard 12c. You can readily see these prices are very inviting and tempting when it takes the way to discover a good bargain. Every one of them is a real money-saver.

Double fold all wool colored nansu's velling, worth 60c; today 25c. Double fold Armine stripes, worth 50c; today 25c.

Black Gros Grain Dress Silk, worth $1; today 50c. Extra Heavy Colored Satin Silk, worth $1; today 50c.

Pure Silk Black Satin Rhinoceros, worth $1.25; today 50c. Black Cashmere Gros Grain Dress Silk, worth $1.50; today 50c.

Colored Satin Rhinoceros, Pure Silk, worth $1.25; today 50c. We are whooping it up in our Dress Goods and Silk Department, slashing into the prices regardless of cost or value, letting it go right and left, and you can't get it any cheaper.

Men's Sack Suits, others ask $1; price today 50c. Men's All-wool Flannel Suits, others ask $15; price today $8.25.

Boys' Fancy Blue Sailor Suits, others ask $2.50; price today $1.25. Men's Fine Cassimere Pants, others ask $3.50; price today $1.75.

Boys' Seersucker Coats and Vests, others ask $1.50; price today 75c. FURNISHING DEPARTMENT. Men's Gauze Undershirts, others ask 50c; price today 25c.

Men's Buck Driving Gloves, others ask $1; price today 50c. Men's Fancy Striped Bathing Suits, others ask $1.50; price today 75c.

Men's Fancy Percale Shirts, others ask $1; price today 50c. Boys' Indigo-blue Shirt Waists, others ask $1; price today 50c.

You can't tell what those bargains are by our advertisement, but be convinced that it is for your interest to see them; the only way to make this method.

HAT DEPARTMENT. Boys' Straw Hats, others ask 40c; price today 20c. Children's Fine Sailor Hats, others ask 50c; price today 25c.

Boys' Fancy-brim Straw Hats, others ask 50c; price today 25c. Men's Fine Straw Hats, others ask 50c; price today 25c.

Men's Hand-made Mackinaw Straw Hats, others ask $1.50; price today 75c. SHOE DEPARTMENT. Men's Fancy Hessian Shoes, others ask $2.50; price today $1.25.

Men's Genuine Kangaroo Shoes, others ask $2.50; price today $1.25. Ladies' Febrile-goat Shoes, others ask $2.50; price today $1.25.

Ladies' Fine Kid Shoes, others ask $2.75; price today $1.35. Ladies' Fine Canvas Shoes, others ask $2.50; price today $1.25.

Misses' Fine Goat Shoes, others ask $2.50; price today $1.25. Misses' Wigwam Slippers, others ask $1.25; price today 75c.

Children's Bright Dongola Shoes, others ask $1; price today 50c. LACE AND HOSIERY DEPARTMENT. Satin Funs, palated; others ask 50c; price today 25c.

Youths' Bicycle Hose, others ask 35c; price today 20c. Ladies' Fine Ingrain Hose, others ask 40c; price today 20c.

Ladies' Fine Balbriggan Hose, others ask 25c; price today 15c. Persian Trimming, the latest craze, others ask 10c; price today 5c.

Children's Solid-colored Hose, others ask 10c; price today 5c. DEPARTMENT. Honeycomb Bedspreads, others ask 15c; price today 8c.

Lace-curtain Net, 14 inches wide, others ask 35c; price today 15c. Fancy Felt Table-covers, others ask 90c; price today 45c.

GLOVE DEPARTMENT. Ladies' Berlin gloves, same as others ask 35c; today 17c. Children's fine silk gloves, same as others ask 35c; today 17c.

French Pardonnet kid gloves, same as others ask 35c; today 17c. JERSEY AND SKIRT DEPARTMENT. All-wool, all colors, tailor-made jerseys, others ask $1.50; price today 75c.

Ladies' dark-colored skirts, others ask $1; price today 50c. EMBROIDERY DEPARTMENT. Embroideries, 4 1/2 to 5 inches wide, sold elsewhere at 10c; today 5c.

Red or blue embroidery, worked in white cloths, others ask 10c; today 5c. NOON DEPARTMENT. Dress stays in black or white, per dozen, 50c. Fine white best tempered steel, 8 1/2c. Fine, embossed, tan-colored ribbons, 2 1/2c. 5 inches wide, worth 40c; today 15c.

Children's or misses' stocking supporters, others ask 25c; today 10c. Baby ribbons, all shades, others ask 25c; price today 10c.

PERFUMERY DEPARTMENT. Ammonia, made by San Francisco Gas Company, worth 10c; today 5c. Chinese cream camphor, worth 25c; today 10c.

Camelline, powder or liquid, worth 50c; today 25c. Hovi's German cologne, genuine, worth 25c; today 10c.

Mogrovo's Column.

For the largest stock, best assorted, newest designs, highest novelties in cloaks, suits, wraps and jerseys, at the most reasonable prices, be sure and call at Mogrovo's, 21 South Spring street.

We are daily receiving the latest novelties in spring and summer dusters, in all the newest styles and colors, and at the lowest prices. Be sure you see them before purchasing at Mogrovo's, 21 South Spring street.

Just received, a fine line of nansook, Victoria lawn and cambrie dressing gowns, trimmed with embroidery and lace from $1 to $4. These are choice summer goods and can only be seen at Mogrovo's, 21 South Spring street.

Oh, those silk-tucked waists, in all colors and sizes, which every lady should have to keep cool in during the hot weather, can only be purchased for $1.50 at Mogrovo's, 21 South Spring street.

Another consignment of those blouse sailor jersey waists have just been received in black, tan, cream, navy, seal and garnet, trimmed with ribbon, bow and hand and silk cord lacing, only $2 and shown nowhere else but at Mogrovo's, 21 South Spring street.

Prices on Lumber. Are extremely low at present, but the lowest are obtained at the Schaller-Danahill Lumber Company.

The "King" Tinted Lead. 10 gallons oil to the 100 pounds. P. H. Mathew, agent, cor. 10th and Los Angeles sts. Telephone Cass Bros.' Store Co. No. 28 South Spring street, for Kitchen Supplies. Telephone No. 219.

Notice to Painters. What is your line of work? Call at Mathew's and see.

OUR SPECIALTY: Filling teeth without pain. By applying our Dentine Anesthetic to the teeth we can prepare and fill the most sensitive teeth without pain. Gold and porcelain crowns. Teeth without plates. Eighteen years' experience. J. H. Edmonds, D.D.S., reception room 31, Broadway-Holmes block.

R. D. LIST, Notary Public and Conveyancer, Local agents for the State of California. DR. HOLLINGSWORTH'S dental office removed to 49 South Fort street.

DON'T FAIL TO SEE Catalina Island Thursday, May 30th.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kind, and it cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low-test, short-weight, adulterated or inferior brands.

BAKING POWDER CO., 100 Wall St., N. Y. Sole Importers for California, J. H. Edmonds, D.D.S., reception room 31, Broadway-Holmes block, Agents, San Francisco.

Real Estate. ATTENTION!

Cheap Land - Good Land.

Dr. E. T. Barber of Lancaster, Antelope Valley, Los Angeles county, Cal., offers 20,000 acres of land for sale in tracts of 20 acres and upward, at $10 to $20 per acre, with liberal terms of sale.

This valley has raised the premium wheat of the world; sugar beets at the rate of 215 tons to the acre have been raised; the crops of alfalfa in one year; parsnips seven inches in diameter, and is competent to compete with Spain for raisins and France for champagne.

All that is offered can be covered with mountain water, and has good surface and arid water, and much of it has a subsoil irrigation.

The railroad facilities are good; the Southern Pacific Railroad now crosses it three or four times a day, and other great railroads are expected to do so in the near future.

Climate good—no cyclones, blizzards, fogs or malaria. A home town of the poor, a home town of moderate means, and a home town to keep-healthy business men. Send for map and description.

SNAP BARGAINS!

Fourteen room lodging-house, furnished; centrally located on North Main street. All rooms can be kept rented to permanent roomers. Lot 52x124. Building cost $4000; furniture cost $1000. For sale at the very low price of $6000; terms easy. Former price $11,000. Parties going east. Can be readily rented now for $50 per month.

Also 18 acres of the garden land in the city, two miles from the Pico House, for $200 per acre; belonging to an estate, must be sold.

Fine residence lot on Orange street, near Pearl, for exchange for house and lot near University.

POMEROY & GATES. 18 COURT STREET. Largest and Newest List in the City.

If any dealer has the W. L. Douglas Shoes without name and price stamped on the bottom, put him down as a fraud.

Hotel Figueroa. Is just the place for parties who are looking for cool and healthy summer quarters, accessible to street cars and only 15 minutes ride to business center. It is the best appointed family furnished room, single and double, billiard and smoking rooms. Please give us a call. 6-15

A Vacation in the Mountains. Take a week at Gleason's Mountain Sanitarium. Access to Brown's Peak, 3000 ft. high. Camp, Millard's Canon and falls. Burros to hire. Take a train from Los Angeles, connect at Raymond Station, Pasadena, with Altadena R.R. Carriage at Gleason Station.

Personal. The Arno, 426 South Spring street, between Fifth and Sixth, will for the summer furnish board and room for $25 per month. Rooms large, airy and well furnished. The table will be made equal to any charging 10c per day. Board, $4.50 per week.

Consult Mrs. Dr. Minnie Wells. Uterine and rectal diseases treated with skill by her new business method. Prompt relief from flat treatment. Chronic cases solicited. Call at office for city references from hospital cases cured. 400 Fort street, corner Fifth.

EXCURSION TO CATALINA Thursday, May 30th. MURRAY, the Tea Man, 313 South Main st.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE FOR LADIES. Best in the world. Examine his $5.00 GENUINE HAND-SEWED "HOMER" HAY-SEWED W. L. DOUGLAS $3.50 POLICE AND FARMERS' SHOES. $2.25 WORKINGMAN'S SHOES. $2.00 and $1.75 BOYS' SCHOOL SHOES. All made in Congress, Burton and Lane.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE FOR LADIES. Best Material. Best Style. Best Fitting. If not sold by your dealer, write W. L. DOUGLAS, Brockton, Mass. Examine W. L. DOUGLAS shoe for Ladies and Gentlemen.

THE MASSACHUSETTS Boot and Shoe House, 23 WEST FIRST ST., SOLE AGENTS FOR LOS ANGELES.

WAREHOUSE, 205 - 209 S. Los Angeles St., CORNER THIRD. Location and accommodations make this the most convenient place for storage of all kinds. Telephone 207.

FRUHLING BROS., ARTISTIC WROUGHT-IRON WORKS. A complete line of housewarming done on short notice. Specialists of wrought-iron fencing, ornate railings, ornamental iron work. 118 & 120 S. Los Angeles st., Los Angeles, Cal. TELEPHONE 933.

For Awnings, Flags, TRUCK, HAY & WAGON COVERS, A. W. Swannell, 124 E. Second St.

Maison de Paris.

MILLINERY AND HAIR GOODS.

MOVING! MOVING! MOVING!

Our elegant stock to be sold 50 Per Cent. Cheaper

On account of moving into new and commodious quarters.

POLITESS AND ATTENTION. Whether you purchase or not.

MME. - DELER, 22 WEST FIRST STREET, NEAR SPRING ST.

Unclassified. Hotel STEWART, San Bernardino, Cal.

Under new management.

The finest hotel in Southern California.

Table supplied with the best of the market. Rooms Large, Well Lighted, and equipped with every modern convenience. JAS. G. BURT, F. R. CALDWELL, Proprietor. Manager.

W. C. FURREY. THE FINEST STOCK OF RUBBER HOSE IN THE MARKET.

Builders' Hardware! IN FULL VARIETY.

MODEL GRAND RANGES! The Leader of All Ranges.

We Solicit Your Patronage, and Offer You LOWEST PRICES IN FIRST-CLASS GOODS.

59 & 61 North Spring Street AND 110 SOUTH FORT ST.

JOE POMEROY THE TAILOR. Makes the Best Fitting Clothes in the State at 25 per cent less than other Tailors on the Pacific Coast.

Suits made to order $25.00 FROM. Pants made to order 6.00 FROM.

248 Montgomery Street, 724 Market and 110 & 112 Market St. SAN FRANCISCO.

105, 107 and 109 Santa Clara Street, SAN JOSE.

49 and 51 South Spring Street, and 265 North Main Street, LOS ANGELES.

1021 & 1023 Fourth Street, SAN DIEGO.

NATIVE WINES.

I make a specialty of pure California Wines and Brandy, which are put up in cases ready for shipment to all parts of the East, consisting of the following varieties: P. W. Angeles, Cherry, Pico to San Francisco, Bay City, Blue Blended, and also a fine Old Brandy.

Persons desiring to send a case of a sorted PURE CALIFORNIA WINES.

To their friends in the East are cordially invited to mail an order for the stock and select from the above varieties, when quotations will be furnished, together with railroad rates of freight to various points, at the lowest possible margin.

All communications addressed to H. J. WOOLLACOTT, 26 and 28 North Spring Street, LOS ANGELES, CAL. TELEPHONE NO. 44. BRANCO, 301 SOUTH SPRING ST.

LOS ANGELES.

WAREHOUSE, 205 - 209 S. Los Angeles St., CORNER THIRD.

Location and accommodations make this the most convenient place for storage of all kinds. Telephone 207.

FRUHLING BROS., ARTISTIC WROUGHT-IRON WORKS.

A complete line of housewarming done on short notice. Specialists of wrought-iron fencing, ornate railings, ornamental iron work. 118 & 120 S. Los Angeles st., Los Angeles, Cal. TELEPHONE 933.

For Awnings, Flags, TRUCK, HAY & WAGON COVERS, A. W. Swannell, 124 E. Second St.

MAISON DE PARIS. MILLINERY AND HAIR GOODS. MOVING! MOVING! MOVING! Our elegant stock to be sold 50 Per Cent. Cheaper On account of moving into new and commodious quarters. POLITESS AND ATTENTION. Whether you purchase or not. MME. - DELER, 22 WEST FIRST STREET, NEAR SPRING ST.

Unclassified. Hotel STEWART, San Bernardino, Cal. Under new management. The finest hotel in Southern California. Table supplied with the best of the market. Rooms Large, Well Lighted, and equipped with every modern convenience. JAS. G. BURT, F. R. CALDWELL, Proprietor. Manager.

W. C. FURREY. THE FINEST STOCK OF RUBBER HOSE IN THE MARKET. Builders' Hardware! IN FULL VARIETY. MODEL GRAND RANGES! The Leader of All Ranges. We Solicit Your Patronage, and Offer You LOWEST PRICES IN FIRST-CLASS GOODS.

59 & 61 North Spring Street AND 110 SOUTH FORT ST.

JOE POMEROY THE TAILOR. Makes the Best Fitting Clothes in the State at 25 per cent less than other Tailors on the Pacific Coast.

Suits made to order $25.00 FROM. Pants made to order 6.00 FROM.

248 Montgomery Street, 724 Market and 110 & 112 Market St. SAN FRANCISCO.

105, 107 and 109 Santa Clara Street, SAN JOSE.

49 and 51 South Spring Street, and 265 North Main Street, LOS ANGELES.

1021 & 1023 Fourth Street, SAN DIEGO.

NATIVE WINES.

I make a specialty of pure California Wines and Brandy, which are put up in cases ready for shipment to all parts of the East, consisting of the following varieties: P. W. Angeles, Cherry, Pico to San Francisco, Bay City, Blue Blended, and also a fine Old Brandy.

Persons desiring to send a case of a sorted PURE CALIFORNIA WINES.

To their friends in the East are cordially invited to mail an order for the stock and select from the above varieties, when quotations will be furnished, together with railroad rates of freight to various points, at the lowest possible margin.

All communications addressed to H. J. WOOLLACOTT, 26 and 28 North Spring Street, LOS ANGELES, CAL. TELEPHONE NO. 44. BRANCO, 301 SOUTH SPRING ST.

LOS ANGELES.

WAREHOUSE, 205 - 209 S. Los Angeles St., CORNER THIRD.

Location and accommodations make this the most convenient place for storage of all kinds. Telephone 207.

FRUHLING BROS., ARTISTIC WROUGHT-IRON WORKS.

A complete line of housewarming done on short notice. Specialists of wrought-iron fencing, ornate railings, ornamental iron work. 118 & 120 S. Los Angeles st., Los Angeles, Cal. TELEPHONE 933.